

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY IN THE FURNITURE MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY LEADING TO SME DEVELOPMENT

The Furniture Technology Centre Trust (Furntech) offers support to new, existing and start-up businesses by providing incubation facilities and accredited skills training for aspiring entrepreneurs with a passion for woodworking and furniture manufacturing.

Furntech, with the support of the Gauteng Department of Economic Development is offering selected individuals the following skills programmes in furniture manufacturing to selected individuals.

- Furniture Making NQF Level 2: Wood Machining Cabinet Making; OR
- Furniture Making NQF Level 2: Upholstery.

Note that potential candidates must have a minimum of Grade 10 with Mathematics

Interested individuals are invited to attend a compulsory INFORMATION SESSION to be held as follows:

Venue: 11 Granville Avenue, Lea Glen, Roodepoort.

Date: 11th and 12 May 2021

The presentation is directed at persons who are interested in pursuing a career in furniture manufacturing with a view to starting their own furniture manufacturing and/ design businesses.

THIS INVITATION DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A JOB OFFER.

Candidates must bring along the following documents (certified copies or originals only):

- Identity Document,
- CV, and
- Applicable qualifications (i.e. computer skills etc.).

Qualifying Criteria

- Minimum Grade 10 with maths
- South African Citizen
- Be willing to work in the wood working industry
- Positive attitude and potential to be developed
- Commitment to be available fulltime for duration of training

The training will take place in Roodepoort, Johannesburg over a period of 15 weeks. For more information regarding this invitation please contact

Furntech: Nomfundo Ncobela: 011 6722185 or e-mail adminjhb@furntech.org.za

GDDED: Bethusile Malibe: 011 355 8452 or Bethusile.Malibe@gauteng.gov.za